OPR would like to announce a new listing, and what a listing this one is...!

Eighty titled hectares in Rincon, gorgeous mountain property with stunning Golfo Dulce view sites, primary, secondary, pasture, easy access, easy power water, everything, $1.5 million.

Reach this property from two access points, one from the main highway from Rincon, the other from the gravel road to Sierpe that turns off at San Juan de Dios. Internal roads recently improved, extensive property access by vehicle during the dry season, not yet graveled in interior portions.

Grid power to the farm and even Asada water, though the farm also has eight internal springs as well as internal streams.

With a large portion of primary forest contiguous with Corcovado National Park, this property boasts all of the animals of the peninsula, including not just the regular felines, jaguarondi, ocelot, tigrillo, and mountain lion but also the apex predator of the region, the jaguar. Count on both species of peccaries, all four of the monkeys, tayra, anteaters, and hundreds of bird species and many many more. Remember, the Osa Peninsula houses 2.5% of the entire planet's biodiversity, and much of that is present on this single farm....!

Property Features:

- Mountains
- Ocean View
- Mountain View
- Farmland
